Living Waters group is a place for deeper healing as we share with one another the experience of being set free in the depths of our souls. Jesus is committed to enabling us to love. That's the basic premise of the Living Waters program. When we are confused or broken in our relationships and/or sexual identities, it keeps us from giving and receiving love as Christ wants us to. We need His restoring grace to heal our relationships and sexuality. When we experience that, then we can turn to assist in the healing of others.
